

Middle passage fact-file

Resource

Main countries involved in transporting enslaved people across the Atlantic:

Details of the ship:

Case Studies

Name of the ship	Number of people who boarded	Number of people who disembarked	Where did it travel to?

How long would ships usually spend at port?

What does the number of people who embarked the ships tell us about what the conditions must have been like during the journey?

What conclusions can be drawn when comparing the number of people who embarked the ship compared to the number of people who disembarked the ship?